Editorial

Dear members of ISPPM,

dear friends and those interested in prenatal psychology,

The ISPPM board wishes you all the best for the New Year!

Currently we are working on upcoming projects of our society with renewed energy:

The plannings of the Annual Meeting 2015 in Berlin are progressing very well. We are confident that this Meeting will help promoting the strategic objective of ISPPM, which is to develop socio-political efficacy.

We are eagerly awaiting the publication of a study initiated by our Vice President Gabriella Ferrari demonstrating the functioning of mirror neurons in unborn children.

The knowledge of prenatal psychology is gaining increasingly widespread recognition -we consider this good and important.

Warm wishes

Dr. Sven Hildebrandt and the board team

23 - 25 October 2015: Annual Conference in Berlin

"I feel - therefore I am"

Prenatal life and birth culture as a walk on a tightrope between human rights, health policy, ethics and economics

The aim of the conference is the assessment and revision of the "Charter on the Rights of the Child before, during and after birth" existing for 10 years and sustainable networking with initiatives and associations committed to child protection.

The program is not yet fixed in detail and will be presented soon.

Newsletter January 2015

Training with Klaus Käppeli and Regina Bücher from 2016 to 2018:

Integration of pre- and perinatal experiences with infants, children and adults

Module 1: Journey of conception

Module 2: Early Bonding

Module 3: Vaginal Birth

Module 4: Chemical Interventions

Module 5: Surgery

Module 6: Life, Death, Loss, Double Bind 1

Module 7: Life, Death, Loss, Double Bind 2

Module 8: Family and Group Dynamics, Integration

We want to offer a solid training to professionals who work with families and children and/or adults. Goals of the training are to provide insights in the time around conception, pregnancy and birth, and also to provide monitoring/counseling and treatment options. The participants will be trained in body therapeutic work with children and adults.
